Moorish Science of the 12 Signs of the Zodiac

“Understanding the Language of Energy and Our Psychology”

Overview

To gain a strong handle on the underlying essence of Astrology, one should develop a strong understanding of the basic nature of each planet; the influence of the signs, aspects and houses; then combine them with reason and develop their intuition (in-sight.) Planets, Signs, Aspects and Houses form an ancient language that describes energy as well as energy dynamics. Understanding these fundamental energies and how they are manifested can provide one with the link between Divine Consciousness and Matter (ourselves) and help us achieve spiritual development.

Planets are messengers of Allah which by their motion through the signs and houses bring to us the opportunities for soul growth which are necessary for individual development.

Value of Astrology

Modern science has determined to some extent the physical effects of the rays of the Sun and the Moon. Speculations have been offered as to effects of rays emanating from other stellar bodies. Ancient science, investigating the subtler forces that impinged upon emotion and mind, charted their effects with no less definiteness than today's understandings of the reactions of the sea and soil, plant and animal, to the solar and lunar rays (Cosmic Energy.)

With this knowledge, a psychological “blueprint” can be determined from the positions of each planetary source in our solar system. This blueprint, based on the astrological pattern of an individual, provides indications and signs of relative strengths and weaknesses operating in their life. To the degree that we are in possession of such knowledge, we can begin systematic, scientific character building. We can elect times and seasons that are cosmically advantageous to unfolding undeveloped qualities, correcting faulty traits, and eliminating destructive propensities.

The educational value of astrology lies in its capacity to reveal the hidden causes at work in our lives. It discovers Spirit. It demonstrates reality. It touches every walk of life, and lends aid to each and all, in whatsoever station they may find themselves.
The Planets are segmented into three groups: Basic Personal Factors, Deep Motivational Factors and Collective Factors

The energies symbolized by the Planets represent Dimensions of our Experience. How we communicate, how we display emotion, our creative energies, our pleasures and dislikes, our sex drive, etc.

These energies are manifested as psychological functions, urges, needs and motivators. The Planet/Sign combination represents the major principles which form our character and motivate every type of self-expression on all levels of life: mental, physical, intellectual and spiritual.

Planets have a home sign where their energy is strongest. They also travel (transit) through the other 11 signs bringing their energies and influences. Each planet is traveling at its own speed in its orbit of the Sun. The seven ruling planets are Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn. These are the planets that are visible to the unaided human eye. They are referred to in various doctrines as seven heavens, seven messiahs, Elohim, etc., and are the seven global spheres of Divine Energy which are channeling energy to our seven chakras.

“The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows his handiwork. Day unto day utters speech, And night unto night reveals knowledge. There is no speech nor language Where their voice is not heard. Their line has gone out through the earth, And their words to the extremity of the world.” – (Psalm 19:1-4)

The Seven Ruling Planets are:

- Moon determines your Emotional Self
- Mercury determines your Mind or Intellectual Self
- Venus, your Love Nature
- Mars your Energy or Actions
